

Sing For No-one

Kavisha Mazzella

Gm Cm
 Before we were born, song was there
 D7 Gm D7
 She pulled us from the womb for us she cared
 Gm Cm
 And whispered in our ears life's mystery
 D7 Gm Cm D7
 And when we die she surely will be there

Gm Cm
 Song says "Oh please use me, you're my voice,
 you're my hands
 D7 Gm D7
 Fashion me into a melody
 Gm Cm
 That tells the human story, It's misery and glory
 D7 Gm D7
 Don't be silent that would be a tragedy!"

Gm Cm
 Sing for no one sing for everyone
 D7 Gm D7
 Sing for we are servants of the song
 Gm Cm
 Sing for being together, never mind the weather
 D7 Gm D7
 Sing for no one sing for everyone!

Gm Cm
 Our instruments the weapons of our choice
 D7 Gm D7
 To disarm oppression with our voice
 Gm Cm
 Though we make an orphans choir we set all hearts
 on fire
 D7 Gm D7
 And angels weep as we do rejoice

Gm Cm
 Sing for no one sing for everyone
 D7 Gm D7
 Sing for we are servants of the song
 Gm Cm
 Sing for being together, never mind the weather
 D7 Gm D7
 Sing for no one sing for everyone!

Gm Cm
 We cry because there's evil in this world
 D7 Gm D7
 Watch the oyster as her art unfurls
 Gm Cm
 Why not turn your sorrow into a song tomorrow
 D7 Gm D7
 And let your tears become a string of pearls

Gm Cm
 Sing for no one sing for everyone
 D7 Gm D7
 Sing for we are servants of the song
 Gm Cm
 Sing for being together, never mind the weather
 D7 Gm D7
 Sing for no one sing for everyone!