

Six Ribbons

Jon English

Dm C BbM7 Am
 If I were a minstrel I'd sing you six love songs
 Dm Am Dm Am Dm
 To tell all the world of the love that we share
 Dm C BbM7 Am
 If I were a merchant I'd bring you six diamonds
 Dm Am Dm Am Dm
 With six blood red roses for my love to wear
 F C Dm Am
 But I am a simple man, a poor common farmer
 Dm Am Dm Am Dm
 So take my six ribbons to tie back your hair

Asus4

Yellow and brown, blue as the sky
 Dm
 Red as my blood, green as your eye

Dm C BbM7 Am
 If I were a nobleman I'd bring you six carriages
 Dm Am Dm Am Dm
 With six snow white horses to take you any - where
 Dm C BbM7 Am
 If I were the emperor I'd build you six palaces
 Dm Am Dm Am Dm
 With six hundred servants for comforting fare
 F C Dm Am
 But I am a simple man, a poor common farmer
 Dm Am Dm Am Dm
 So take my six ribbons, to tie back your hair
